

ProSIM participates in the Nuclear Energy Conference in Mumbai March 2025

CHEMTECH foundation in collaboration with Indian Nuclear Society (INS) and with support of Ministry of Power (Government of India) organized a conference on Nuclear Power, as part of their world expo 2025.

Dr V K Saraswat, member NITI Aayog, and Dr R B Grover, Homi Bhabha Chair at HBNI delivered keynote lectures. Conference was attended by many private players trying to set up nuclear power plants, EPCs and supplier base of nuclear ecosystem in India.

Dr S Shamasundar, Managing Director, ProSIM was invited as a panelist to share his views and experience in the conference.

From Left to Right: Mr Hemant Shetty, President and CEO of Jasubhai Media and organizer of event, Mr U K Bhattacharya, MD of Steag India Pvt Ltd (Former Director of NTPC and of ASHWINI), Mr MVR Raju, VP and Nuclear BU Head L&T Construction, Prof B N Jagtap, President INS, Dr S Shamasundar, MD ProSIM and Hon Director India Energy Network, Dr S Kalirajan, Exec VP, Tata Projects, Mr Ranjan Sharan, Former Director Projects NPCIL, Extreme Left Mr Mittal, Secretary INS.

Dr Shamasundar making a point in the panel discussion. Mr MVR Raju VP and BU Head, Nuclear, L&T Construction, Prof B N Jagtap, President INS, Dr S Kalirajan, EVP, Strategic Business, Tata Projects in the panel.

Shamasundar made plea to create a nuclear ecosystem in India from EPCs to system integrators, equipment makers and component suppliers. He suggested to create dynamic models that can estimate the costing of power output of nuclear power plants including SMRs.

Dr S Shamasundar, MD ProSIM with Dr V K Saraswat, Member NITI Aayog